

A Door

This month, February, we are so thankful to have been given an 8 X 8 freight door for the back of the stage! This is where production equipment will be offloaded from the truck to the building.

What a generous donation and answer to prayer this is. Thank you, Jesus! Yes, He moves and provides through people.

Phoebe provided monetary support for Jesus' ministry. Martha provided hospitality.

Joseph of Arimathea provided a tomb. Mary provided perfume. They were the hands and feet supporting Him. This time, the gift was a door.

We are His hands and feet. You can't see Jesus or the Holy Spirit until someone yields to do His Will, then you can see Jesus as the person becomes His hands and feet.

It is not all about going to church; it is about hearing that voice inside and saying yes, I can do that!

If We Build It, They Will Come

CCEC is already drawing people. This week, a water tank was filled and heated as we readied for more baptisms.

A mother was baptized. Shivering with dripping hair and joy on her face, she hugged her family.

A father prayed over his daughter before laying her down in the water, saying, "buried with Jesus unto death and raised to newness of life."

What a joy it is to see people come here for those life-changing moments. Moments that say, "someone told me about what Jesus did for me." Moments of decision that will touch generations.

With the stage nearing completion, CCEC is getting close to hosting concerts and speaking events. The sand beach is ready for fun and baptisms. The sand left over from that project will be used to make a sand volleyball court.

The blueprint is big, but the vision is simple: Build a Christ-centered outdoor event center.

The mission is to host outdoor events for families, music groups, and organizations that impact lives for Jesus.

The Grace of God

We cannot help but be grateful for the Lord's grace as we continually experience His providence and His faithfulness in bringing those who are lost to Himself. We are reminded that His grace is sufficient.

*"And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."
Philippians 4:19*
