

Acting like Jesus

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me." He was so drawn to the powerless.

Jesus touched the blind man's eyes. He also touched the person with leprosy.

These people had no status, power, or wealth. The crippled man was reduced to begging in his day.

Jesus had so much compassion! He had so much love for the down and out, for the outcast, and the despised. He saw them. He did not overlook them or ignore them.

"Okay, Jesus. Forgive me for the times when I chose not to see these people that you love so much. Give me Your eyes to see and Your heart to love."

Heavenly Answers

Jennette Yoder

Doyle and I have coffee and pray together most mornings. Yesterday, one prayer was about a shortfall of funds needed to complete a wiring project for

CCM. We have also been praying for an ATV or golf cart for transporting people and supplies.

It was still early when someone knocked on the door. Our unexpected visitor handed Doyle the exact amount of money for which we had just prayed! After visiting for a while, he mentioned trading off his golf cart for a side-by-side.

Doyle asked if he would like to donate it to CCM. The man said, "Yes, we can do that. We believe in what you are doing."

Doyle and I were astounded by this quick answer to our prayers and the generous gifts. How encouraging!

This month, Don and Doyle extended Wi-Fi coverage to the stage area. They will soon be setting poles for the area lighting and running wiring to the sound booth.

On the list to purchase and install are a sound board, microphones, stage lighting, and a freight door. More to trust God for.

God said He would be faithful to complete the good work in us. He is also faithful to complete the vision He has placed in our hearts, which is to see Jesus revealed to our community through CCM.

God has surrounded us with people who are strong in faith and prayer. People who are generous with their time and gifts.

Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life, 1 Timothy 6:18-19.
